News from Knox County Health Dept.....The Community Health Partnership has released the community health assessment for input from the community. Survey participants must be Knox County residents and at least 18 years of age to participate. This survey focuses on strengths, household challenges and issues, as well as perception of community needs. This survey is being conducted online, at area festivals and community events and at area emergency assistance providers. We estimate this survey to take between 10 and 15 minutes and hope you will make time to share your thoughts about important Knox County issues. You can find the survey at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/KnoxHealthSurvey2014>. Only one response per household. If you would like for someone else in your family or a friend to respond to the survey, please share the link with them. You must be a resident of Knox County. The results of the survey will be used to develop the next community health improvement plan as well as to provide goals for the health department and other community agencies. Should you have questions about this survey, please contact the Knox County Health Department at 740/392-2200 ext 2242. Surveys must be completed by August 31, 2014.

SpringHaven is a community-based non-profit organization comprised of Christian professionals who strive to live and work out their mission of “compassionately leading people toward wholeness.” They will offer counseling services to the community around Danville and Eastern Knox County. Individuals and families struggling with mental health & emotional needs are welcome to call the main office at 330/359-6100 to schedule an appointment.

The Laugh's on Us... The minister shouted to his congregation: “Stand up if you want to go to heaven!”

Everybody jumped up, except an elderly fellow in the front pew.

“Are you telling me you don't want to go to heaven?” thundered the pastor.

“When I die, yes,” the elderly man said. “But I thought you were getting up a group to go right now.”

Sunday	August 24	11:15-7pm – Eucharistic Adoration

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time Weekend of August 16/17, 2014 – In today's first reading, the Lord speaks through the prophet Isaiah during a time of political dissolution and moral decline. The prophet had warned of God's judgment against people for the feelings of self-importance they found in their possessions, and condemned them for various forms of economic injustice such as exploiting the poor and immigrants. Good stewards know that Isaiah's message is as compelling today as it was in the time of the kingdom of Judah: Do the right thing. Offer justice and compassion toward others. Be honest in all your dealings. And remember to observe the day of the Lord.

Knights of Columbus will have an Installation of Officers followed by Potluck Dinner – Monday, August 18 at 7pm at the KofC Hall. All KofC members and their families are invited.

Bloodmobile – Tuesday, August 19, 1-7pm: The Danville Bank is sponsoring a bloodmobile in the Community Center. Please make an appointment if you are able to donate. Go to www.redcrossblood.com.

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) begins Thursday, September 4 at 7pm in the St. Luke Rectory. The sessions initially begin with an Inquiry Phase. This is a time to ask questions about the Catholic Faith, what Catholics believe and how we worship God.

All who are interested in learning more about the Catholic Faith, both Catholic and non-Catholic are welcome to attend these sessions, whether you have a desire to enter into the Catholic faith and receive the blessed sacraments and/or want to learn more about the Catholic faith and our Christian heritage. If you have any further questions, please feel free to contact Father Hammond or Father Vince, call the parish office or Mimi Durbin, RCIA director, at 599-6585. If there is someone you feel should be extended an invitation to join us, please call the parish office.

PCCW Public Euchre Card Party Committee for Tuesday, August 26: Barb Mickley, chairlady; Barb Blubaugh, Carolyn Crawford, Betty Durbin Carpenter, Betty Hoffman, Colette Iverson, Joanna Mickley, Jody Mickley, Sheryl Mickley, Maggie Mroczkowski, Anita Orndorff, Annette Puster, Cathy Worley. Please call Barb Mickley at 599-7102 or 599-7224. Possible donations are two pies, jello for 12-15, sloppy joes for 15, shredded chicken for 15-20, four dozen buns, or assisting with serving following cards.

Stewardship Prayer for August

Lord God,

As we prepare for the transitions of August; of routines becoming regular, signs of schools beginning to emerge, and traffic patterns getting heavier, help us to appreciate the sacred rhythms in our lives. Give us the wisdom to make our hearts be still, much as the August wind is still, so that we may listen to the gentle words you speak to us. Help us understand that you alone are the source of every good gift, of the vast array of our universe, and the mystery of each human life. And help us see that we are called to be good stewards of all that you have entrusted to us; tending them faithfully and responsibly so they may ultimately be returned to you with increase. In this month of August while a measure of summer's stillness remains, speak to our hearts, guide us in your Son's ways, and through your Spirit, give us the strength to proclaim your justice and peace in our everyday words and deeds. We ask this through Christ, Our Lord. Amen.
