Sad News from Danville United Methodist Pastor Mary Murtha: It is with a heavy heart that I have to pass this news to you. I was diagnosed last week with a type of cancer called Adenocarsi-noma which has spread, so I am in stage 4. It cannot be cured, only treated for more time with Chemo and surgery, then more chemo. I will remain [the UMC] Pastor for as long as I can, and will do as much as I can. As I continue to walk out in Faith, I ask everyone to join me in doing the same. God is with us, always has been, and will continue to be with us forever. Let us always remember to fully rely on Him. Pastor Mary

Catholic Social Services will host its annual “Breakfast with the Bishop” on October 3rd at the Hyatt Regency. Please join CSS and The Most Reverend Frederick F. Campbell, D.D., Ph.D. in fellowship as they reflect on the impact of poverty in central Ohio. This year’s theme, “Building Bridges Out of Poverty,” will highlight the complex nature of poverty as well as Catholic Social Services’ efforts to help those in need throughout the diocese. CSS is pleased to welcome guest speaker, Jodi Pfarr, who will offer insights about the “Bridges Out of Poverty” model for reducing poverty.

New to the event this year is a group training after the breakfast. Jodi Pfarr, Certified Trainer, will lead the training in the “Bridges Out of Poverty” model for community leaders and individuals from 10-3 on October 3rd at the Bryce Eck Activity Center.

If you are interested in attending the breakfast or the training, please visit the events tab of the website: www.colssc.org or call Laura Campise, Director of Mission Advancement, at 614/857-1236.

Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Weekend of September 27/28, 2014 – Saint Augustine, a doctor of the church, once wrote that the first, second, and third most important attitude in Christianity is humility. In today's second reading, Saint Paul is concerned with how we conduct ourselves in our community of faith. He urges us to let our conduct be worthy of the Gospel we say that we believe; and that it all begins with humility. He asks us to consider others better than ourselves, and to serve them by looking out for their best interest, not ours. Consider how Saint Paul's appeal to imitating Christ's humility can enhance your relationships.

All youth grades 9-12 are invited to the St. Luke Y-Disciple Youth Group Kickoff Picnic on Sunday, September 28th from 4-7pm at King Beach. Join us for food, fun and fellowship, weather permitting. Rain site will be at the St. Luke Community Center.
