Just fill it out with your information and return it to the parish office. We will send it to the Diocese of Columbus. If you are currently a member of another parish in the diocese, they will transfer your membership to St. Luke's. (You cannot be a member of two parishes at once.) We invite you to become active in our parish life and ministries.

Put on Faith. "Put on faith: what does this mean? When we prepare a plate of food and we see that it needs salt, we "put on" salt; when it needs oil, then you "put on" oil. "To put on," that is, to place on top of, to pour over. And so it is in our life, dear young friends: if we want it to have real meaning and fulfillment, as you want and as you deserve, I say to each one of you, "Put on faith," and life will take on a new flavor, life will have a compass to show you the way. "Put on hope," and every one of your days will be enlightened and your horizon will no longer be dark but luminous. "Put on love," and your life will be like a house built on rock; your journey will be joyful because you will find many friends to journey with you. Put on faith, put on hope, put on love! . . .

But who can give us all this? In the Gospel we hear the answer: Christ. "This is my Son, my chosen one. Listen to him! Jesus brings God to us and us to God. With him our life is transformed and renewed, and we can see reality with new eyes, from Jesus' standpoint, with his own eyes (cf. Lumen Fidei, 18). For this reason, I say to every one of you today: "Put on Christ!" in your life, and you will find a friend in whom you can always trust; "put on Christ," and your life will be full of his love; it will be a fruitful life. Because we all want to have a fruitful life, one that is life-giving for others.

Easter Sunday, Weekend of March 26/27, 2016 – In today's first reading from the Acts of the Apostles, Peter boldly offers his testimony to the risen Christ. He shared with the crowds what he himself witnessed: Jesus' friendship, healing and forgiveness. Peter proclaims a resurrected life that brings hope. The Christian life is, indeed, a resurrected life. It is new life, one of truth, inner joy and genuine fulfillment. God has transformed our lives for all eternity, and that transformation is what it means to be a Christian. Do you know the resurrected life? Have you genuinely experienced it? Good stewards have, and in their joy, they are committed, like Peter, to offering their own witness. It is time to rejoice. Christ the Lord is risen today! Alleluia!

KofC Members: Please turn in your sold KofC raffle tickets by April 12 so we qualify for the early rebate money back. Tickets may be placed in the church collection basket marked 'KofC raffle tickets' or turned in to Dave Rashley or Don Blanchard.

Bishop Campbell's 2016 Easter Message (from Diocese of Columbus website)

My dear brothers and sisters in the risen Christ, There is a great joy in experiencing the reawaking of nature after winter. Although our past winter was rather mild, we still rejoice in the early spring which has come upon us with some surprise. Yet there is a greater joy that the Christian faithful experience along with the excitement of a new spring: the annual celebration of the festival of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus from the dead, promising new life to all who encounter the power of the Lord's message and His announcement of a Kingdom of truth and peace through the forgiveness of sin and the restoration of our human nature. This newness of life will stretch beyond our earthly death into eternity, banishing darkness, error, and fear. The power of the Resurrection answers the deepest longings of the human heart. It grants us meaning, dignity, and a future bright with the glory of God shining on the face of Christ. Those who proclaim the risen Lord can face the challenges of life with profound hope with a sincere and persistent joy.

You may notice, as you hear the scriptural accounts of the appearance of the risen Lord at Mass, their rather quiet character. While lacking high drama they possess extraordinary power as Jesus establishes His bodily reality in a glorified form to His disciples by calling them by name, eating with them, breathing out the Spirit upon them. The lives of the disciples are transformed. They no longer hid behind closed doors out of fear. With their hearts on fire with the words of Christ, filled with courage and joy, the disciples run from the upper room to proclaim the good news: sin and death have no more power over them.

May the risen Lord, Who changed the lives of those early disciples, change your lives as well and fill your lives with joy, hope, and lasting peace.

The Lord is risen! Alleluia!

~Most Reverend Frederick F. Campbell, Bishop of Columbus
