Year of Mercy Youth Reflections for Week of April 10 – Theme: "The Light of Faith"

- "Faith does not dwell in shadow and gloom; it is a light for our darkness." (Pope Francis)

Reflection Questions:

- Are there dark areas in your life that can be illuminated by your faith? #YearofMercy
- In what way can you share your light with others during this #YearofMercy ?

It Is Worth Saying Yes to God – The Lord calls some to be priests, to give themselves to him more fully so as to love all people with the heart of the Good Shepherd. Some he calls to the service of others in the religious life: devoting themselves in monasteries to praying for the good of the world and in various areas of the apostolate, giving of themselves for the sake of all, especially those most in need. I will never forget that day, September 21—I was seventeen years old—when, after stopping in the Church of San Jose de Flores to go to Confession, I first heard God calling me. Do not be afraid of what God asks of you! It is worth saying “yes” to God. In him we find joy!

Dear young people, some of you may not yet know what you will do with your lives. Ask the Lord, and he will show you the way. The young Samuel kept hearing the voice of the Lord who was calling him, but he did not understand or know what to say, yet with the help of the priest Eli, in the end he answered, “Speak Lord, for I am listening” (cf. 1 Samuel 3:1-10). You too can ask the Lord, “What do you want me to do? What path am I to follow?”

~Pope Francis, Meeting with the Volunteers of World Youth Day, Rio de Janeiro, July 28, 2013

A Stewardship Moment: Third Sunday of Easter, Weekend of April 9/10, 2016

In today’s Gospel we hear of that mysterious meeting Jesus’ disciples had with him on the shore of the Lake of Tiberius. Jesus invited them to have breakfast with him. He took the bread and gave it to them, and the same with the fish. None of the disciples were bold enough to ask: “Who are you?” They realized it was the risen Lord. Those who practice good stewardship of their life of faith are touched by joy and moved by deep awe when encountering Christ in the celebration of the Eucharist. How do you experience the mysterious presence of Jesus in the Eucharist? Do you recognize his presence? Do you hear the Lord’s invitation to draw nearer? Do you experience a closeness, or a reserve? A familiarity, or a distance?

Eucharistic Adoration – Sunday, April 17 from 11am-7pm: From the Catechist #2096 – Adoration is the first act of the virtue of religion. To adore God is to acknowledge him as God, as the Creator and Savior, the Lord and Master of everything that exists, as infinite and merciful Love. “You shall worship the Lord your God, and him only shall you serve,” says Jesus, citing Deuteronomy. #2097 – The worship of the one God sets man free from turning in on himself, from the slavery of sin and the idolatry of the world.

KofC Members: Please turn in your sold KofC raffle tickets by April 12 so our Council may qualify for the early rebate money back. Tickets may be placed in the church collection basket marked ‘KofC raffle tickets’ or turned in to Dave Rashley or Don Blanchard.

Bloodmobile: Monday, April 18 from 1-7pm at St. Luke Community Center, sponsored by Danville School. Please call Danville High School at 740-599-6116 to schedule an appointment.

St. Luke Cemetery: Please be aware that if artificial flowers have been left on graves, they will be removed before the cemetery is mowed as they are not permitted after March 1st.

As a safety precaution, the outside doors will be locked shortly after Mass begins. You will be able to exit through all the doors. If you should need to go out and return, or arrive late, please knock so the usher can let you in.

A number of people have said that what drew them to the Catholic Church was the Eucharist. As we reflect on recognizing Jesus in the Breaking of the Bread, think for a moment whether there is someone you could invite to Mass and to explore what else the Catholic Faith might hold for them. For information on Christian initiation or RCIA, call Greg Henkel, 740-392-4711, Ext 5 or gregmhenkel@gmail.com.
