Collection for the Church in Latin America – August 6 & 7: Your gifts fund catechesis, pastoral programs, marriage and family life projects, seminarian education, and many other necessary programs in Latin America and the Caribbean. The support you give today will provide seeds to grow the faith for years to come.

Prayer for Solidarity – Merciful God, we thank you for the opportunity during the past 50 years to learn from and stand in solidarity with the people of Latin America and the Caribbean. With the help of our Mother Mary, Our Lady of Guadalupe, we ask you to give us unity with the faithful in Latin America, the Caribbean, and around the world, especially those who suffer because of their faith in Christ. Through the Holy Spirit, grant us the grace to give generously of our time, treasure, and talent to those in need. May we learn from the example of St. Juan Diego and share our faith in humility and love. We ask this through your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Also, contact Greg if you are interested in becoming a sponsor for someone considering becoming Catholic.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION – Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Eucharistic Adoration is an amazing way to encounter Jesus Christ face to face. He is exposed on the holy altar for us and is truly present to us in His body, blood, soul and divinity. Let us take the time to come and kneel before Jesus in a most profound and intimate meeting where heaven is present here on earth. The graces and blessings he will shower on you and your family is unlimited. So come, let us adore our King!

Weekly adoration will begin after the 8:00 a.m. mass on Tuesday mornings and continue through the day and night until before mass on Wednesday at 11:00. We need a strong commitment from our parish to start this weekly adoration in the Fall. Please, let Jesus know how much we love him. Call now and start the blessings flowing. Call: Barb Smith (740-668-2202), Denise Coffield (740-599-7710), Don Horn (740-668-3014). There are sheets to sign-up on the table by the side entrance.

Marriage and NFP... a Divine Design – Married couples who use Natural Family Planning (NFP) report many benefits including: better communication between spouses, increased patience and emotional maturity, deeper understanding of each other, and growth in respect for God's gift of fertility. Engaged and married couples are invited to learn NFP. Class dates/registration of online at familylife@columbuscatholic.org or contact the Marriage and Family Life Office at 614-241-2560 or familylife@columbuscatholic.org.

Upcoming NFP Class at St. Vincent de Paul Parish starts Sunday, September 25, 2016, 2:30-4:30pm; continues October 9 & 30, and December 4.

WORD OF LIFE "Perhaps one of your friends has become pregnant unexpectedly. As someone who has been there, I encourage you to support your friend in her new journey of being a mother... Your support might be the only support she receives."

EVENTS OF THE COMING WEEK

Saturday	August 6	Mission Co-op – Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur will be here this weekend Church in Latin America collection
Sunday	August 7	5pm – Parish Council/Staff/Catechist Picnic

A Stewardship Moment: Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Weekend of August 6/7, 2016

In today’s Gospel reading, Jesus concludes his teaching about those who are “faithful and prudent stewards” with that classic stewardship teaching: “Much will be required of the person entrusted with much, and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more.” Christian stewards recognize that God is the ultimate source of their gifts, talents, resources and aptitudes, and that God wants them to use these varied gifts in his service. This week might be a good time to reflect on our God-given gifts. Are we using those gifts to serve the Lord? If Christ came back to us unexpectedly tomorrow would we be able to give a full accounting of how we have exercised stewardship over these gifts?

Fall Alpha – Looking for Volunteers

Alpha kicked off at St Luke’s this past spring with 50 people participating as volunteers and guests. We will be offering a fall Alpha Program and are looking for volunteers. Perhaps you attended as a guest in the spring... you would be a great table host or helper! Perhaps you were unable to attend in the spring and fall is a better time of year for you. Perhaps you volunteered in the spring... we would love to have you back!

Sessions will be held from mid-September through November on Wednesday nights during PSR Class Time. Come volunteer while your children are in PSR class!

Please contact Brenda Arnold at 740-507-8784, JoAnn Campanelli at 740-599-6097, or the parish office if you are interested in volunteering or have questions about the program.

Stewardship: Nurturing and Cultivating Our Gift of Faith by Julie Kenny, ICSC Director of Member Benefits

Saint John Paul II wrote “Life is entrusted to man as a treasure which must not be squandered, as a talent which must be used well” (Evangelium Vitae, 52).

Our late pontiff also wrote:

It is Jesus who stirs in you the desire to do something great with your lives, the will to follow an ideal, the refusal to allow yourselves to be ground down by mediocrity, the courage to commit yourselves humbly and patiently to improving yourselves and society, making the world more human and more fraternal (Prayer Vigil, World Youth Day, August 19, 2000).

Another year of learning begins soon. Teachers everywhere will assemble students, engaging and encouraging them to discover their talents, recognize and focus on their potential, and understand more about life, faith, and the world. Likewise, the New Evangelization calls each of us to commit ourselves to learning more about our faith.

The need for ongoing formation and catechesis is not just for the young. It’s vital for everyone, throughout our lives. We respond to the call for a New Evangelization and gratefully receive the gift of our faith and cherish it. However, before we can share our faith with others in justice and love, we must tend to it, in a responsible and accountable manner.

What are some ways we could tend to our faith? Here are a few ideas from some of our ICSC members:

- Join, or lead, a parish Bible study group.
- Start a book club reading religious books about saints, liturgy and Catholic practices.
- Subscribe to or download an app for a daily devotional with reflection and commentary.
- Participate in a diocesan faith-formation course.
- Check a nearby seminary for courses available to laity.
- Read religious pamphlets and the diocesan newspaper or magazine.
- Visit a library and check out Catholic educational audiotapes or DVDs.
- Search for and read online the documents and summaries from the Second Vatican Council.
- Talk to your pastor, parish life director, or pastoral associate.
- Pray every day, often.

As regards to prayer, it would be a good idea to set aside time routinely for complete silence in order to listen for God’s still, small voice, like Elijah waiting in the cave. He too was humbly and patiently waiting to improve himself and society. The Lord called Elijah with a whisper, sending him on a mission to Damascus (1 Kings 19:12-16).

We, too, are summoned to fulfill a role only we can play using the gift of faith entrusted to us. What is God pressing on your heart to do with your faith? How will you respond?
