God Is Patient with Us – God is not impatient like us, who often want everything all at once, even in our dealings with other people. God is patient with us because he loves us, and those who love are able to understand, to hope, to inspire confidence; they do not give up, they do not burn bridges, they are able to forgive. Let us remember this in our lives as Christians: God always waits for us, even when we have left him behind! He is never far from us, and if we return to him, he is ready to embrace us.

~Pope Francis, Homily, Basilica of St. John Lateran, Divine Mercy Sunday, April 7, 2013

A Stewardship Moment: Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time, Weekend of August 20/21, 2016 – The Gospel reading today starts with a question: “Lord, will only a few people be saved?” Jesus offers only a simple reply: Strive to enter through the narrow gate. Many will try to enter and will not be able. Good stewards know there is only one, narrow gate. Not everything will fit. This narrow gate has no room for our accomplishments. No room for our money. No room for our possessions. No room for anything else but those who’ve been good stewards of the Gospel. We can’t custom build our own gates either. There is only one, narrow gate that happens to be open for a time, but for how long? What is our plan of action to get through that gate?

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

This Sunday, August 21st we will have Eucharistic Adoration from 11:00am-7:00pm.

Beginning Tuesday, September 6th, we will have weekly Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament after the 8:00am Mass that will continue through the day and night until before Mass on Wednesday at 11:00am. This is going to give our parish an immense opportunity to obtain His graces and blessings. Please sign up for an hour with our Lord.

FATHER SNOKE recently commented on what Adoration means to him. "Adoration is a time to get away from the busyness of life and focus on you and the Lord. Adoration is so special to the Lord because it isn't something we 'have' to do, it's something we want to do for Him. This is a time to praise Him for all He has done for us, and all that He continues to do for us. The focus is not on ourselves, but on the Lord. Here we can leave the outside 'outside'. Leave your worries at the door, leave all behind. You are in the presence of God."

Welcome for New Members – August 27 & 28: The KofC and PCCW invite new members of our parish and anyone interesting in joining the parish, especially those from the Church of the Nativity, Utica, to come over to the Community Center for refreshments after Mass. Parishioners, please come get acquainted and make them welcome.
