Pentecost Sunday, Weekend of May 23-24, 2015 – Today we celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit, the birth of the Church and the beginning of its mission in the world. Pentecost Sunday reminds us that our lives are filled with the Holy Spirit and God has accomplished creative things in us through this gift. We have been entrusted with this great gift of the Holy Spirit. Now is a good time to ask: Are we being good stewards of this gift? What creative things have we done to glorify God’s accomplishments in us?

Congratulations to our children who made their First Holy Communion last Sunday: Brayden Anderson, Aidric Boccock, Adam Butts, Bronson Durbin, Macy Higgins, Andrea Holland, Kalman Kanuckel, Landon Lyons, and Addison Mickley.

2015 Bishop’s Annual Appeal “Until He Comes Again, This Is Our Work” Please take time to prayerfully consider your pledge if you have not yet done so. Any amount given over our goal will be refunded 100% to our parish. With the exterior work just completed on the Church and Community Center, the refund to St. Luke’s will be helpful in building up our reserves once again. We hope that everyone will participate. There will be follow-up phone calls to those who have not made a pledge. Please fill out a pledge envelope and save us a call, even if you cannot give this year. Checks should be made out to: St. Luke Church, BAA. Thank you.

Goal - $23,757.21

Total Pledges - $24,160.21 with 91 pledges received thus far, Thank you!

2014 BAA – 170 households made pledges for a total of $39,163.98. $16,566.02 has been refunded to us. (We have approximately 295 households in our parish, so we hope for many more pledges.)

Pentecost: A Stewardship Feast to Celebrate

A challenge for the Christian steward is accepting, and even rejoicing, in the fact that our commitment to faith is often a counter-cultural one. Perhaps this is nowhere more striking than in the quick cultural “end” of the Easter season, and our own belief that Easter is leading us through May to the great feast of Pentecost on May 24.

We see this discordance in many Christian celebrations adapted by the popular, commercial culture. While we are still enjoying the season of Christmas and looking forward to Epiphany, most American homes have taken the Christmas tree to the recycling center and moved on to thoughts of Valentine’s Day. During the sacrificial early days of Lent, there’s something jarring – yes, just wrong – about all those pastel Easter eggs and bunnies appearing in stores. And all that chocolate!

So, as Christian stewards, we feel no surprise that as we break our Lenten fast and begin our meditation on the Resurrection, we find that the stores have tucked those chocolate bunnies away on discount shelves, and we’re off to the next commercially competitive venture. And as the great feast of Pentecost beckons us, we realize that the society around us gives this occasion hardly a passing nod. Apparently, there’s no money to be made from Pentecost, the day the Holy Spirit came among the apostles and imbued in them the courage to be true followers of Christ. Courage, strength, faith, the Spirit – these are hard to market in the public square, aren’t they? The willingness to live and ultimately to die as martyrs for Christ, as the apostles did, these are things that are hard to package in bright paper. They don’t fit well in the greeting card aisle.

Perhaps during these days of May when we as Catholic stewards continue to celebrate the season of Easter and look forward to Pentecost, we might examine our own willingness to step outside the culture in our celebration of great Christian feast days. Keep the reminders of the Resurrection around you. Let your family prayer reflect the marvels of the season. Help your children to be aware of the liturgical calendar. Explain to them the meaning of the changing colors of the priests’ vestments. Dress up in red for Pentecost Sunday. But most importantly, educate yourself and your family on how powerful it is to understand and celebrate the great markers and mysteries of our shared faith experience.
