A Stewardship Prayer for September

Lord God,

Pour out on us the wisdom and love with which you fill all good stewards so that we may please You with our faith and our actions. Show us how to open our hearts to hear the voices of the poor.

Give us a generous spirit toward our neighbors and help us especially to anticipate the needs of those who are ashamed to beg; for we are mindful that to make them ask for alms is to make them buy them.

We ask that you hear our own prayers, anticipate our wants, and draw us closer to your kingdom.

We pray this through your Son, Jesus Christ, who lives with You and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever.

Amen.

Psalm: The School of Prayer – At the heart of the Bible are the Psalms, prayers from God that help us to learn to pray. Their words captivate the imagination and draw us into a deeply personal encounter with God.

Please come to one of our small church communities to study the Psalms:

Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time, Weekend of September 5/6, 2015 – St. James teaches that those who are poor in the eyes of society are the ones who have been chosen to inherit the Kingdom of God. Indeed, we are saved because of our poverty; we are redeemed out of our need; not because of our material wealth or achievements that the world finds praiseworthy. St. James also suggests that we are stewards of others, especially the poor and needy that will define our relationship with the Lord. How do we respond to the less fortunate right within our own parish?
