Be Immersed in the Holy Spirit. Dear parents, dear godfathers and godmothers, if you want your children to become true Christians, help them to grow up “immersed” in the Holy Spirit, that is to say, in the warmth of the love of God, in the light of his Word. For this reason, do not forget to invoke the Holy Spirit often, every day. . . . We usually pray to Jesus. When we pray the Our Father, we pray to the Father. But we do not often pray to the Holy Spirit. It is very important to pray to the Holy Spirit, because he teaches us how to bring up the family, the children, so that these children may grow up in the atmosphere of the Holy Trinity. It is precisely the Spirit who leads them forward. For this reason, do not forget to invoke the Holy Spirit often, every day. You can do so, for example, with this simple prayer: “Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.” You can say this prayer for your children, as well as, naturally, for yourselves!

When you recite this prayer, you feel the maternal presence of the Virgin Mary. She teaches us to pray to the Holy Spirit, and to live in accordance with the Spirit, like Jesus. May Our Lady, our Mother, always accompany the journey of your children and of your families. So be it.

~Pope Francis, Homily at Mass administering Baptism, January 11, 2015

Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, December 26/27, 2015: The ultimate aim of Saint Paul's Letter to the Colossians is to teach the community how to deepen its relationship with Christ Jesus. His list of virtues summarizes the ideals of communal stewardship: compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. For Paul, practicing these virtues opens our hearts to Christ as individuals and as a worshipping community. This is how the Christian community ought to live. This is how its members should behave in their dealings with others, particularly with fellow believers. As we approach the new year, how might we embrace one or more of these virtues more fully in our parish community in order to deepen our relationship with Jesus?

2016 Parish Directory: The new directory will be printed soon. If you have any updates: address, phone, additions to your family, etc. please call or email the office with them. Thank you for your assistance!

PCCW is sponsoring a painting evening. Bring a friend and enjoy a fun-filled evening with friends, painting a beautiful picture of a winter scene Monday, January 11, 2016. Everyone can do it!! Believe me; I look at mine and am amazed I did that. You need to sign up on the website: www.finewineandcreativdesign.com. There is a cost and you have to pay with credit card. If unable to do that, please contact Marcia Durbin.

Baptism Preparation: Parents are required to attend a meeting along with their Godparents, if possible. There are forms to complete for the parents & godparents on the St. Vincent website and then you may contact Greg Henkel at gregmhenkel@gmail.com or 740-397-4711 x5 to set up a meeting.

Selecting Godparents for your child: A godparent should have a sense of responsibility toward the child and parents. Church law requires a sponsor/godparent be at least 16 years of age, fully initiated (Confirmed), and be a registered and participating Catholic at a Catholic parish. They must be attending Mass weekly and be registered at the parish where they attend. (Young adult children are generally left on their parents' registration for a few years after they graduate from high school. After that they need to register at the local parish where they attend Mass.) While it is a common practice to have two sponsors/godparents, only one is required for Baptism. Along with the Catholic sponsor/godparent, a person in good standing in a Christian church may serve as a Christian Witness for the child.

“We know what true, authentic love looks like. It looks like the man on the Cross. This deep, pure love that motivated Jesus to offer his life for ours, is the love that will answer the longing in our hearts, if we let it.
