Young Adults: At age 23 you MUST register under your own name! Being a registered member makes it easier to be married, to have an infant baptized, even for a funeral. If you are asked to be a sponsor for Baptism or Confirmation, the parish will be asked to provide confirmation of membership at the Parish and we need to see that you are a registered, active, contributing member of St. Luke's.

To register at St. Luke Parish, please pick up a Family Registration form in the church from the table near the side entrance or in the vestibule, stop at the office, or one can be mailed to you upon request. Just fill it out with your information and return it to the parish office. If you are currently a member of another parish in the diocese, the diocese will transfer your membership to St. Luke's.

God has a plan for your marriage! Whether you've discerned God calling you to try to achieve or postpone pregnancy, Natural Family Planning (NFP) can help you and your spouse live God's plan for love and life, while strengthening your marriage relationship. Consider learning NFP – attend a diocesan NFP Class Series at a location near you. Register online at familylife.colsdioc.org or contact the Marriage and Family Life Office at 614-241-2560 or familylife@colsdioc.org.

As part of the national Fortnight for Freedom, a special Mass and Holy Hour for Religious Freedom will be celebrated on Wednesday, June 29, 5:15 p.m., at Saint Joseph Cathedral, 212 East Broad Street, Columbus. The Mass will conclude with a special Holy Hour beginning with a rosary for Religious Freedom and Liberty, followed by silent Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and concluding with Benediction. All persons are invited to participate in this special evening of prayer. For more information, please contact Saint Joseph Cathedral by calling 614-224-1295, or the diocesan Office of Social Concerns at 614-241-2540. Elevator access to the Cathedral is available via the west entrance (in the courtyard) from East Broad Street. For more information about the Fortnight for Freedom, please visit www.fortnight4freedom.org.

Get Closer to the One You Love – You can do that on a Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend! Marriage Encounter is 44 hours where married couples can get away from jobs, kids, chores, and phones—and focus only on each other. The next two weekends are August 5-7 and November 11-13, both in central Ohio. For more information or to register, contact Paul & Marilou Clouse at 614-834-6880 or visit our website at www.wwmecolumbus.org

The Lord Invites Us Into the People of God – What does “People of God” mean? First of all, it means that God does not belong in a special way to any one people, for it is he who calls us, convokes us, invites us to be part of his people, and this invitation is addressed to all, without distinction, for the mercy of God “desires all men to be saved” (1 Timothy 2:4). Jesus does not tell the apostles or us to form an exclusive group, a group of the elite. Jesus says, “Go out and make disciples of all people” (cf. Matthew 28:19). St. Paul says that in the People of God, in the Church, “there is neither Jew nor Greek . . . for you are all one in Christ Jesus” (Galatians 3:28). I would also like to say to anyone who feels far away from God and the Church, to anyone who is timid or indifferent, to those who think they can no longer change: the Lord calls you too to become part of his people, and he does this with great respect and love! He invites us to be part of this people, the People of God!

A Stewardship Moment: Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Weekend of June 25/26, 2016

Today's Gospel reveals to us the beginning of Jesus' journey to Jerusalem. We will journey with Jesus for many Sundays to come, and along the way he will teach us about the demands of discipleship. His instructions may seem harsh and unreasonable to our ears. His response to legitimate requests to postpone the journey reminds us that there are always justifiable excuses to defer the journey or put off the responsibilities of discipleship. Other important matters compete for our attention. Some of us must make heart-wrenching choices, but there is urgency about Jesus' mission to bring forth God's kingdom. His demand is that we proclaim the Kingdom of God now. Is this our first priority, or do we have other priorities?

St. Luke's Festival, Sat., July 9 – We need YOU! Want to know how you can be involved? Contact:

- Beth Durbin to donate auction items - if you need help designing them or if you have questions.
- Joanna Mickley to volunteer for the Chicken dinner.
- Vic Campanelli to loan 10x10 tents. Tents are needed!
- Janet Hawk to donate items to Fancy Goods – “A pretty-tasty-gottahaveit- knickknack shop”

Fancy Goods, formerly known as Country Store, needs your help to stock it with all kinds of fancy desirables that you can eat, wear, or show. Garden produce, baked goods, candies, jams, and new craft items are needed. Bring items the day of the festival or call Janet Hawk at 740-599-6416.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION – Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Eucharistic Adoration is an amazing way to encounter Jesus Christ face to face. He is exposed on the holy altar for us and is truly present to us in His body, blood, soul and divinity. Let us take the time to come and kneel before Jesus in a most profound and intimate meeting where heaven is present here on earth. The graces and blessings he will shower on you and your family is unlimited. So come, let us adore our King!

Weekly adoration will begin after the 8:00 a.m. mass on Tuesday mornings and continue through the day and night until before mass on Wednesday at 11:00. We need a strong commitment from our parish to start this weekly adoration in the fall. Please, let Jesus know how much we love him. Call now and start the blessings flowing. Call: Barb Smith (740-668-2202), Denise Coffield (740-599-7710), Don Horn (740-668-3014).

Hospitality at Mass: A Key to Good Stewardship

For many individuals and families alike, summer means travel. And summer travel may mean new visitors to our parish for weekend liturgies. How we greet and provide hospitality for our guests says a lot about our practice of good stewardship.

Providing hospitality to strangers is a hallmark of Christian stewardship. In the Gospel of Matthew good stewards were commended for their hospitality: “I was a stranger and you welcomed me” (Matt. 25:35). Saint Benedict directed his followers to receive guests and travelers as if they were Christ. Extending hospitality is especially important when it comes to welcoming visitors who may be attending Mass at our parish for the first time.

There is a lot of anecdotal evidence suggesting that the ability of a first-time visitor to have a meaningful experience of Christ in the liturgy is directly impacted by the warmth of the welcome extended by the local worshipping community. When people say hello, the worship experience is enhanced. A warm welcome is part of evangelization, work necessary in a church's mission to help people discover or renew their faith in Christ.

How do we treat the unknown person who walks by us in church, or who sits next to us at Mass? Do we ignore them? Talk around them? Look at them and say nothing? Do we take the initiative to greet them, smile, extend a warm handshake?

Remember, we are Christ's ambassadors (2 Corinthians 5:20). Our actions and reactions toward visitors at Mass communicate who we are and who we represent. Let us take time to welcome visitors to our parish this summer. Welcoming gestures, however small, will not only have a positive impact on visitors, they will make us more hospitable ambassadors of Christ.
