The Church lives an authentic life when she...proclaims mercy—the most stupendous attribute of...the Redeemer—and when she brings people close to the sources of the Savior's mercy...

It is precisely because sin exists in the world...that God, who is love, cannot reveal himself otherwise than as mercy. This corresponds...to the whole interior truth of man and of the world which is man's temporary homeland. Mercy in itself, as a perfection of the infinite God, is also infinite. Also infinite therefore and inexhaustible is the Father's readiness to receive the prodigal children who return to his home. Infinite are the readiness and power of forgiveness which flow continually from the marvelous value of the sacrifice of the Son.

No human sin can prevail over this power or even limit it. On the part of man only a lack of good will can limit it, a lack of readiness to be converted and to repent, in other words persistence in obstinacy, opposing grace and truth, especially in the face of the witness of the cross and Resurrection of Christ. Therefore, the Church professes and proclaims conversion. Conversion to God always consists in discovering his mercy...Authentic knowledge of the God of mercy, the God of tender love, is a constant and inexhaustible source of conversion...as a permanent attitude, as a state of mind.

A Stewardship Moment: Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Weekend of July 23/24, 2016

Today's Gospel parable speaks to generosity. In the deep of night, a sleepy friend responds to his neighbor's request for food for an unexpected guest. Jesus suggests that it would be unthinkable that a friend would deny a friend in need. A friend would most certainly give what is asked and more. Through this story, Jesus illustrates God's generosity. Good stewards realize the extraordinary love and graciousness with which God showers us. We need never convince God to be generous. God is already that generous friend. His abundant love bathes us in goodness. This week, prayerfully reflect on God's generosity and what our response should be to that generosity.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION – Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Eucharistic Adoration is an amazing way to encounter Jesus Christ face to face. He is exposed on the holy altar for us and is truly present to us in His body, blood, soul and divinity. Let us take the time to come and kneel before Jesus in a most profound and intimate meeting where heaven is present here on earth. The graces and blessings he will shower on you and your family is unlimited. So come, let us adore our King!

Weekly adoration will begin after the 8:00 a.m. mass on Tuesday mornings and continue through the day and night until before mass on Wednesday at 11:00. We need a strong commitment from our parish to start this weekly adoration in the fall. Please, let Jesus know how much we love him. Call now and start the blessings flowing. Call: Barb Smith (740-668-2202), Denise Coffield (740-599-7710), Don Horn (740-668-3014). There are sheets to sign-up on the table by the side entrance.

National Natural Family Planning Awareness Week! Natural Family Planning Awareness Week highlights the anniversary of the papal encyclical Humanae Vitae (July 25) which articulates Catholic beliefs about human sexuality and married love. The week also included the feast of Saints Joachim and Anne (July 26), the parents of the Blessed Mother. Natural Family Planning (NFP) uses modern scientific knowledge of fertility to allow married couples to safely and effectively achieve or postpone pregnancy without the use of drugs or devices. Engaged and married couples are invited to learn NFP. Class dates/registration are online at familylife.coltsdioc.org or contact the Marriage and Family Life Office at 614-241-2560 or familylife@columbuscatholic.org.

Christian Initiation Inquiry – As our Blessed Mother brings us to her Son Jesus, it is our task also to bring others to the Lord. Is there someone you can invite to explore the Catholic Faith – someone unbaptized or baptized in a non-Catholic Christian tradition? Perhaps you know a Catholic adult interested in being confirmed. Call Greg Henkel, 740-392-4711, ext. 5 or email greghenkel@gmail.com.

The Real Crisis – Right now, the whole world is in crisis. And crisis is not a bad thing. It is true that the crisis causes us suffering but we—and first and foremost, all you young people—must know how to interpret the crisis. What does this crisis mean? What must I do to help us to come through this crisis? The crisis we are experiencing at this time is a human crisis. People say: it is an economic crisis; it is a crisis of work. Yes, that's true. But why? This work problem, this problem in the economy, is a consequence of the great human problem. What is in crisis is the value of the human person, and we must defend the human person...

Today the person counts for nothing; it is coins, it is money that counts. And Jesus, God, gave the world, the whole creation, to the person, to men and women that they might care for it; he did not give it to money. It is a crisis; the person is in a crisis because today—listen carefully, it is true—the person is a slave! We must liberate ourselves from these economic and social structures that enslave us. This is your duty.
