Stripping Ourselves of Idols – We have to empty ourselves of the many small or great idols which we have and in which we take refuge, on which we often seek to base our security. They are idols which we sometimes keep well-hidden; they can be ambition, careerism, a taste for success, placing ourselves at the center, the tendency to dominate others, the claim to be the sole masters of our lives, some sins to which we are bound, and many others. This evening I would like a question to resound in the hearts of each one of you, and I would like you to answer it honestly: have I considered which idol lies hidden in my life that prevents me from worshipping the Lord? Worshipping is stripping ourselves of our idols, even the most hidden ones, and choosing the Lord as the center, as the highway of our lives.

~Pope Francis, Homily, Basilica of St. Paul Outside-the-Walls, April 14, 2013

Stewardship Moment: Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time, Weekend of September 3/4, 2016

At the conclusion of today’s gospel, we hear Jesus tell a “great crowd” that “...anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple.” A few of Jesus’ immediate disciples, such as Peter, John and James, did just that: They responded to Jesus’ call, renouncing everything to follow him. How do modern disciples of Jesus respond when confronted with this apparently harsh command of Jesus? Surely the renunciation of possessions need not mean literally giving all one’s possessions away, does it? Questions we might ponder this week though: Do our possessions keep us from encountering Christ at Mass? Do they distract us from our parish family? Do our possessions interfere with our relationships? Do they make us insensitive to those less fortunate?

Life has its storms – stressful relationships, jobs, poor health; situations where we feel our powerlessness. If you know someone unbaptized or baptized in a non-Catholic Christian tradition, who is searching for strength and understanding to weather such squalls, invite them to seek the perspective the Catholic Church offers. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) classes for the Knox-Licking Consortium has begun. Sessions are held Tuesday evenings at 7pm, rotating between St. Vincent de Paul’s Pope Francis Center and St. Luke’s Community Center. Anyone who is considering becoming Catholic and any Catholic who has not received all of the sacraments of initiation, please contact Greg Henkel at gregmhenkel@gmail.com or 392-4711x5 for more information. If you would like to attend but cannot make that time please contact Greg to discuss your individual schedule. Also, contact Greg if you are interested in becoming a sponsor for someone considering becoming Catholic.

Got Questions – Try Alpha on PSR Night – Sessions begin September 21st

We are so excited to present a second session of Alpha this fall. This 10-week program is a series of interactive sessions that freely explore the basics of Christian faith. No pressure. No follow-up. No charge.

Come attend Alpha on Wednesday nights, beginning on September 21st and wrapping up by the end of November. Alpha includes a light meal, followed by videos and speakers, then small group discussions, running from 6:30-8PM to coincide with PSR. Drop your kids off at PSR, then make time for yourself to learn more about basics of Christianity. We will be sure to wrap up in time for pick-up!

Sessions will be held a block away at The Blonde Robin!

Sign up forms will be included in the upcoming parent letter and will also be available in the next few weeks in the pews. Tell your friends – all are welcome!

Please contact Brenda Arnold at 740-507-8784, JoAnn Campanelli at 740-599-6097, or the parish office if you are interested in volunteering or have questions about the program.

Eucharistic Adoration was scheduled to begin on September 6, but because of the work still to be done on the church, Eucharistic Adoration will be postponed until the work is completed. Thank you to everyone who has signed up for an hour to sit with our Lord and show Him our love and adoration. Several hours are not yet covered and we can not allow Our Jesus to be alone exposed on the Holy Altar. Please, search your heart and let Jesus tell you what He desires. He wants you to come and Adore Him. Call Barb Smith (740-668-2202) or parish office to sign up.
