Newark Catholic is pleased to have Miss Devani Adam on staff as a Math teacher. Devani is a member of St. Luke Parish and a 2012 NC graduate.

Communication System: There is a communication system being launched by the Parish Council Safety Committee to communicate critical information, cancellation and change to the Parish via text and email. Many of you have provided email addresses and cell numbers. We need to complete that information and include your cell carrier for those of you that wish to be on the distribution list. Information you provide is confidential and will not be given to anybody; it will be used only by the church. The safety committee will be calling you over the next few weeks to get the information. You can decide if you want to be on the list or opt out. If you have any questions, please contact any member of the Safety Committee or the Parish Office. Members of the Committee are Dave Rashley, Marcia Durbin, Sheryl Mickley, Eric Morris, John Higgins, and Ed Annett.

Danville Area Senior Citizens Luncheon Thursday, November 17, 2016 – We all have so much to be thankful for and what better way than to share a wonderful meal with friends & family. Danville Area Senior Citizens will be serving a delicious traditional Turkey Dinner on Thursday, Nov. 17 at 12 noon at St. Luke Community Center.

Ladies from St. Luke's and the Shepherd's House will be preparing and serving Turkey, dressing w/gravy, sweet potatoes, buttered beets, cranberry relish or applesauce, rolls, pie and beverage. Suggested donation is $6 for lunch; reservations due by Monday, November 14. Please make your reservation early as reservations may be limited. Please contact Barb Mickley (740-599-7102 or 740-599-7224) or Marty Neighbarger at 740-599-2930. Please leave your name, number attending and phone number on either answering machine if we are not available to talk to you.

Our special guests for the afternoon will be James Gibson, director of Knox County Historical Museum, and David Greer, area historian. They will be sharing the historical development of the four area townships—Brown, Howard, Greer & Jefferson. There is a tremendous amount of history within these 4 townships and the manner in which each one came to be. You are sure to find it fascinating.

Danville Area Senior Citizens is open to all individuals living within the East Knox and Danville School districts. Join your friends and neighbors for a delightful lunch, surprising information and friendly conversation. Hope to see many of you on the 17th.

Catholicism Classes: St. Vincent de Paul Church, Mt. Vernon will hold a 7-week seminar for anyone wishing to learn more about the Catholic faith. Classes, based on Fr. Stewardship Moment: Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time, Weekend of November 5/6, 2016 – In today's second reading, Saint Paul offers encouragement to the Christian community and prays that the Lord instill encouragement in their hearts. There is nothing worse than discouragement to drain people spiritually and emotionally. Yet, at times, it is much easier to lose patience with others and offer critical and discouraging words. We are "our brother' (and sisters') keepers." We are stewards of our relationships with others. Offering encouragement is essential to the exercise of that stewardship. Saint Paul understood that God worked through him just as God works through us to encourage others. How often do we ask the Lord for encouragement? How often do we look for opportunities to affirm, strengthen and encourage others in our daily lives?

PSR CLASS PICTURES will be set up in church this weekend. Parishioners are encouraged to sign up and pray for our "saints in the making" as the students study their Religious Education during PSR classes this year.

PCCW Craft – Ladies are invited to make a Nativity Set next Sunday, November 13 at 2pm. Please call Marcia Durbin at 740-599-6459 so there will be enough materials.

The Knights of Columbus are sponsoring a fundraising project to purchase an AED for St. Luke's. AED, Automated External Diffibulator, is a proven technology that can be accessed and used quickly to save lives. The cost is $1,500.00. Donations can be made at the November 11th Fish Fry, Nov. 13th Pancake Breakfast, or the Parish Office. The Knights will contribute the difference between the donations and purchase price.

The Catholic Foundation's President & CEO, Loren Brown, will be at St. Luke's on Tuesday, November 15 from 6-8pm. You are invited to come for light refreshments and a presentation on our Parish Endowment Funds and how to leave a legacy for the future of St. Luke Parish. Kindly reply to Sara Ireland at 614-443-8893 or sireland@catholic-foundation.org by November 10.

Danville Library Book Discussion – Monday, Nov. 21 at 6pm at St. Luke's

Father Jean Baptist Lamy, who came from the south of France, was the first pastor in Danville, Ohio. He traveled to the newly acquired territory of New Mexico and became the first Archbishop of Santa Fe.

Nearly 40 years after his death, Pulitzer Prize winner Willa Cather fictionalized the intrepid priest as Father Latour in her 1927 novel Death Comes for the Archbishop. Cather's Father Latour and his real life counterpart, Lamy, are the subject of a book discussion sponsored by the Danville Public Library on Monday, November 21, in St. Luke's Catholic Church, the very parish that he helped to build.

Leading the book discussion is Danville native Wilford Durbin, who became interested in the novel during research toward his Master's Degree on American Catholic Church property disputes at Boston College. Father Homer Blubaugh will also be present to contribute his expertise in the history of the Catholic Church in Danville.

A copy of the book will be given as a door prize. Refreshments will be served in St. Luke Community Center following the discussion. For more information, call the Danville Public Library at 740-599-2665.

March for Life Trip to Washington, DC, Jan. 26-28, 2017: The March is later this year due to the Presidential Inauguration. Applications are being accepted now. Please see insert for details.
