Living Stations of the Cross – Good Friday, April 14th – We are in need of high school and junior high school students to help with the LIVING STATIONS on Good Friday this year. We need two readers, a spot light operator and students to stand in a "freeze pose" for each of the stations. We will require you to "practice" only from 4-8pm on Good Friday. The Stations will be presented at 8:30. We will feed you supper that evening.

God has a plan for your marriage! Whether you've discerned God calling you to try to achieve or postpone pregnancy, Natural Family Planning (NFP) can help you and your spouse live God's plan for love and life, while strengthening your marriage relationship. Consider learning NFP – attend a diocesan NFP Class Series at a location near you. Register online at familylife.colstdioc.org or contact the Marriage and Family Life Office at 614-241-2560 or familylife@colstdioc.org.

Lenten Program: All Parishioners of our consortium are invited to attend a five week Lenten series entitled, “Forgiven” beginning Monday, March 6th at St. Luke Community Center. A light Lenten meal will begin at 6:30pm with the presentation beginning at 7pm. Small group discussion follows the presentation with the evening ending at 8:15pm. If you have children that are potty trained and need childcare, please contact us immediately so we can recruit enough qualified staff for every family needing childcare. To request childcare and/or to register for this series please contact Greg Henkel at 740-392-4711x5 or gregmhenkel@gmail.com. You must register to receive your student study guide.

St. Luke parishioners will provide soup and bread for March 6, March 20, and April 3. If you are available and willing to bring bread and soup in a crock pot to share, please call Marcia Durbin or the parish office. To watch a trailer of this series go to <https://www.augustineinstitute.org/forgiven/>.

CRS Rice Bowl: Pray together; give things up, or fast in solidarity with those who hunger; learn about our global community and challenges of hunger and poverty around the world; and give sacrificial donations to those in need.

ENCOUNTER INNOVATION: We encounter the Singh family in India, where a mother and father are using innovative farming techniques to feed their family amidst a flood. How is God inviting us to think outside the box in service to others this Lent? Visit crsricebowl.org for more. For Families:

Looking for a great Family Life Activity? Do the CRS Ricebowl Challenge! Each day your family does a daily suggested activity in the CRS Rice Bowl Lenten calendar (included with the rice bowl), check that day’s completion box in the upper left hand corner. At the end of Lent, add up the number of daily CRS Rice Bowl activities your family accomplished and write the total. Complete the form at <http://socialconcerns.coldsdioc.org> and mail in by April 28. Your family will be in a drawing for a fair trade basket! This project is in partnership with the diocesan Office of Marriage and Family Life and the Office for Social Concerns. Rice Bowls are at the church doors.

The St. Luke Council #910 Knights of Columbus annual membership drive is underway. We will be having an information session after 10:00AM mass on March 5th. Anyone interested in joining is also invited to join us for a free pancake breakfast and the information session on the 5th. After Mass, knights will be at the door to give you a free ticket to the breakfast as well as answering any questions you may have.

After many years of serving St. Luke parish as the Parish School of Religion Coordinator, Tom Harrmann is planning to retire at the end of the school year. Fr. Hammond is looking for a replacement who can work alongside Tom to help learn the position. Anyone interested in this part-time employment is asked to contact Fr. Hammond at the parish office, 740-599-6362.

Danville Public Library Book Discussion – Monday, March 6 at 6:30pm in St. Luke Community Center lounge: Written in 1948, 1984 was George Orwell’s chilling prophecy about the future. Winston can’t escape the fact that Big Brother is always watching. Rose Sebouhian & Sean Smith will lead the discussion.
