Fifth Sunday of Lent Reflection – Scripture shows us that God is just. This week we also hear that God is merciful. He rewards those who believe in Him but condemns those who do not. However, this week, we begin to realize the full scope of God's mercy. We hear that the Lord will make a new covenant with His people, so that those with no faith will come to know the Lord. Additionally, the Lord will accept His people, and He will not only forgive them of their sins but also remember them no more. The Lord is overwhelmingly merciful with His people. Knowing that the Lord shows us abundant mercy, we should also strive to show others mercy, especially those who are suffering from poverty and illness. We can show mercy to others by helping to meet their needs, whether they be spiritual, physical or emotional. We can be compassionate in standing with those who are sick and weary, visiting them and praying with them. We can also be compassionate in giving to the diocesan St. Peregrine Fund. This fund assists cancer patients and their families with unmet needs and provides outreach to individuals and families dealing with all forms of cancer in the Catholic Diocese of Columbus. For more information call 614-241-2540 or email socmailbox@colodioc.org or call 614-241-2540.

But we are also aware that our children aren't really our own – that they belong to God. Please join us as we discuss how we can reach our children's hearts in the way that God intends and with the truths that He values to mother in a way that has lasting value. No experience necessary, just come as you are for some coffee and a chance to see what Walking with Purpose is all about! Monday, March 19 at 9:30am at St. Luke Community Center.

"Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow the Lord will do amazing things among you." (Joshua 3:5).
