WWP ‘Opening Your Heart’ Connect Coffee Talk: God—First Place in All Things

Our most important priority is our relationship with God. When He is at the center, everything else stays in balance. When we let other things take center stage, it all comes crashing down. Please join us Tues., Oct. 23 at 7pm in the Community Center as we discuss putting this priority first amidst of the messiness of life.

WWP ‘Keeping in Balance’ Connect Coffee Talk: Getting a Grip Through Relationships

Women struggle to be authentic with one another. We want to be liked and are afraid of revealing who we truly are. Please join us either Mon., Oct. 22 at 9:30am or Tues., Oct. 23 at 7pm in the Community Center for an inspiring talk and discussion as we learn how to stop measuring our dignity by comparing ourselves with others or whatever ideal we may hold ourselves up against. Walking with Purpose is a women’s Catholic Bible study. The program aims to bring women to a closer relationship with Christ. Personal study and small group discussions at WWP each week link our everyday challenges with the solutions given to us through the teachings of Christ and the Catholic Church. For more information, contact Judy Hedge or Joann Campanelli.

No experience necessary, just come as you are for coffee and see what Walking with Purpose is all about!

Catechism of the Catholic Church 544: The kingdom belongs to the poor and lowly, which means those who have accepted it with humble hearts. Jesus is sent to “preach good news to the poor,” he declares them blessed, for “theirs is the kingdom of heaven.” To them – the “little ones” – the Father is pleased to reveal what remains hidden from the wise and the learned. Jesus shares the life of the poor, from the cradle to the cross; he experiences hunger, thirst, and privation. Jesus identifies himself with the poor of every kind and makes active love toward them the condition for entering his kingdom.
